Acknowledgement

Before enrolling, I received sufficient promotional information and I visited the school website to know about the tutorial service being provided. I am aware of the information contained on the website and promotional information including tuition details, fees, information on the principal and teachers and refund policies and procedures. I understand that in accordance with the Education (Exemption) (Private Schools Offering Non-formal Curriculum) Order, the fee is collected in advance no more than one month prior to tuition commencing. If the school fails to provide the tutorial service as scheduled, the school will give me a full or partial refund according to the refund policies and procedures stated in the promotional information and school website.
